ONLINE CITY GUIDES OTTAWA

"How 5,000+ Businesses in Over 100 Industries Get More Customers Using Local Online Marketing"

Since 1996, Canadian Kiosk has helped more than 5,000 businesses get more customers in more than 100 different industries across the country. As one of Canada's largest online tourism, events and business directories, Canadian Kiosk works to maximize the local and nationwide growth opportunities for its clients. The city guides are easy to use and trusted by more than six million visitors for their everyday needs. These customers view upwards of 18 million pages within the company's websites looking for products and services to buy in their city.

Canadian Kiosk's products and services include all things related to internet marketing. From business directory listings to banner advertising to newsletter advertising as well as event promotions and even social media promotions, they do it all. Canadian Kiosk's unique process for connecting people with businesses they didn't know exist makes Canadian Kiosk a trusted resource for Google Organic. Google ranks their website #1 organically for popular keywords regularly because they consistently connect the right people with the products and services they need.

Canadian Kiosk's 80 per cent renewal rate proves they consistently meet — or exceed — clients' expectations by driving sales and leads through their doors on a regular basis. This means customers get a positive ROI and trust Canadian Kiosk with their advertising. For more information please visit us at www.canadiankiosk.ca
